Take a look at our smart,
simple solutions...

A woman with short dark hair, wearing a vibrant, multi-colored patterned dress and white sandals, stands in front of a weathered wall. She is holding a young child in a pink patterned dress. The wall behind them is made of mud and plaster, with several newspaper clippings pinned to it. To the right, a wooden frame holds a bright blue and pink cloth. A green plastic lid sits on the ground near the wall. The scene is set in a modest, possibly informal, living space.
